Order of the Mass and Parish News

TODAY'S CELEBRATION

*Welcome to this celebration of the Mass. Thank you for being here.
Today's News, Annual Meeting Information and Mass Times – see p.20ff*

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

RUBRICS	These are instructions or descriptions of what is happening, and they are printed in italics . These also provide prompts and guides for posture and gesture.
OUR PART	The congregational (people's) parts are printed in bold .

THE LITURGICAL ENVIRONMENT

The liturgical colour for the Sundays of Advent is blue. There are four Sundays of Advent. It affords time to prepare to celebrate the 'first' coming of Jesus the Christ – the incarnation – at Christmas. Blue has its origins in the Sarum tradition of the Anglican tradition (Sarum is the Roman name for Salisbury). Blue is a colour of hope. It mirrors the bright blue skies of the approaching summer, and our hearts ponder, with Mary, God's love in our midst.

FROM FR STUART:

OUR NEW PARISH COUNCIL

Last Monday, the new Parish Council met for the first time. It had a large and diverse agenda which explored projects that will help improve the life of this faith community. Even though they have commenced their work – or at least mapping out some options for future work – I will commission them at today's Sung Mass. I am pleased to say that Craig Douglass, a dedicated St Bartian, has accepted my invitation to join the Parish Council for this year.

LETTING OURSELVES BE KNOWN

Over the past month or two we have been increasing our input on social media. This is primarily on Facebook with regular posts, but we will also explore other avenues to let ourselves be known in those digital spaces. The two people who have taken on this important work of letting people know about this wonderful parish of Saint Bart's are Daniel Brace and Sarah Harrison.

Daniel has a background in marketing and communications and has a vast array of skills to lead us in this work. Sarah is accomplished at making videos and identifying ideas and themes for promoting the work and life of the parish.

Thanks to Daniel and Sarah, for taking on this important apostolic work.

THE FINAL DAYS OF ADVENT

The "O Antiphons" which span the days from 17 December to 24 December relate to the antiphon which is sung before and after the Magnificat at Vespers. Each day a different title of Jesus is used. That for 22 December is "O Dawn". The Rule of the Community at Taizé contains this encouragement: "Renouncing henceforth all thoughts of looking back, and joyful with infinite gratitude, never fear to precede the dawn: to praise and bless and sing Christ your Lord".

As we prepare to celebrate, once more, the birth of the Saviour, may your greeting of his birth, his dawning on the world, fill your heart and the hearts of all you love with joy and peace. Details of our Christmas liturgies are on page 18. Please invite your friends. God bless you all.

GATHERING IN GOD'S NAME

*As the entrance hymn is sung as the priest and liturgical ministers enter.
The altar, which symbolises Christ, is revered and censed.*

THE PENITENTIAL RITE AND LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH

THE FOURTH SUNDAY

LIGHTING THE CANDLE FOR MARY

A member of the congregation lights the fourth candle, the candle for the Virgin Mary—who bore Christ in her womb.

Heavenly Father, you exalted the humble and meek:
give us humble and contrite hearts.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you grew towards birth in the Virgin's womb:
be planted also in our hearts and lives.

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Holy Spirit, you overshadowed Mary,
that she might become the God-bearer:
fill us with your heavenly gifts.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

The priest pronounces the absolution.

People of God: prepare!

God above all, maker of all, is one with us in Christ.

Maranatha!

Come, Lord Jesus!

God, the mighty God, bends down in love to earth.

Maranatha!

Come, Lord Jesus!

God with us, God beside us, comes soon to the world he has made.

Maranatha!

Come, Lord Jesus!

The cantor leads the Kyries and we respond as below.

Cantor: All:
Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy.

Cantor: All:
Christ, have mer - cy. Christ, have mer - cy.

Cantor: All:
Lord, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy.

We sit for the readings.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

The response at the end of the reading is:

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The cantor sings the psalm, and the congregation repeats the response and then joins in the response throughout the psalm.

Refrain

Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and we shall be saved.

Kathleen Boschetti

O shepherd of Israel, hear us, shine forth from your cherubim throne.

O Lord rouse up your might,

O Lord, come to our help. R

God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.

Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. R

May your hand be on the one you have chosen, the one you have given your strength.

And we shall never forsake you again:

Give us life that we may call upon your name. R

SECOND READING

The response at the end of the reading is:

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

We stand to welcome the gospel.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

We repeat the acclamation after the cantor and again after the sentence reflecting the theme of the gospel:

Chant - Mode VI

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

Here am I, the servant of the Lord:
let it be done to me according to your word.

Luke 1:38

THE GOSPEL

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

After the end of the Gospel, the reader says:

We sit for the homily.

THE HOMILY

THE CREED

We stand for the creed which is said by all.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and became truly human.

] all may ] bow

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

We remain standing.

The response to the petitions are:

Lord, in your mercy:
hear our prayer.

The response after the prayers for the departed is:

✝ Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord.
And let light perpetual shine upon them.

and concludes with this prayer:

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers
grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

THE COMMISSIONING OF THE 2024-2025 PARISH COUNCIL

We sit for the Commissioning.

Fr Stuart addresses those elected and appointed to Parish Council and asks them if they are willing to undertake the responsibilities as wardens and parish councillors.

Fr Stuart: People of the Saint Bartholomew's Anglican Parish, do you accept these people to serve you and to lead you?
Will you support them and pray for them?

All: We will, with God's help.

Fr Stuart prays for the wardens and members of Parish Council, formally admits them and prays for God's blessing on them.

THE GREETING OF PEACE

The priest introduces the Greeting of Peace and then says:

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever.
Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD AND THE COMMUNION

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

Whilst the bread is broken, the Agnus Dei is sung by all to the setting below:

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

*Fr Stuart administers communion to the servers and Eucharistic Assistants.
Feel free to sit until the following invitation to communion.*

Come! Draw near with faith and receive the gifts of God for the people of God!

Thanks be to God!

*Christ is the host at the altar here at Saint Bartholomew's and welcomes all, especially those who are communicant members of other denominations.
If today, you prefer to receive a blessing—please indicate this to the Priest.*

HYMN AFTER COMMUNION

We remain seated as the following hymn is sung.

- 1 Now sing my soul, 'How great the Lord!
Rejoice, my spirit, in your God
my Saviour who has looked on me,
a humble servant in his sight.
For ever after, I'll be known as happiest of the human race;
the mighty one has dealt with me and holy, holy is his name.

- 2 Throughout all ages, those who fear his majesty shall know his grace;
his powerful works disclose his might,
he routs the arrogant in heart.
From thrones great rulers have been torn yet humble ones are raised on high;
the hungry have been satisfied while rich ones lack and creep away.

3 To Israel, servant of the Lord, comes yet again the promised hope:
in Abraham and all his sons,
God's mercy ever shall endure.
Give glory then to God above,
give praise to Christ, his only Son;
give thanks for all the Spirit's power,
both now and through eternity.

WORDS: Based on Luke 1:46-55 Michael Saward, alt.

MUSIC: JERUSALEM C Hubert Parry 1848-1918 (CWB 754)

PARISH NEWS

NOTES AND NEWS

SAINT BART'S BOOK CLUB

The Saint Bart's Book Club had a fun and relaxed pre-Christmas celebration last Tuesday. It was decided that the next meeting of the Saint Bart's Book Club will take place on Tuesday 21 January in the Guild Hall. The book discussion will focus on Tracey Chevalier's, The Glass Maker.

Come along for a stimulating discussion and you will receive a warm welcome to the Book Club, if you haven't already attended it.

For more information: Evan Costello or Kathy Kozlowski.

RICHMOND FOOD CENTRE DONATIONS

Many thanks to all those who have generously been making donations to the Food Centre. The needs are great at present, and all donations are gratefully received. Non-perishable foodstuffs and items that can be easily opened are the best to choose when you are shopping.

But at this time items for Christmas will also be helpful: such as tinned hams and tinned tuna.

The centre closes for two weeks after 23 December, so we need to help to give a real boost of foodstuffs to help fill that gap. Those who come at Christmas will be given extra to assist in some way of tiding them over till the centre re-opens in January.

ROSTER CHANGES

When you make swaps and changes to the roster, could you please let Fr Stuart know as well, so any changes that are included in the Parish News?
